

Seek Immediate Care

If you have any of the following symptoms after the removal of a colon polyp, you should call your doctor immediately:

- severe pain in the abdomen
- fever
- bloody bowel movements that do not improve or bleeding from the anus that does not stop
- dizziness
- weakness